

Naz Knight Authors Bio 2021.

Naz Knight was born, raised and made in Luton and is first-generation British-born Caribbean.

Before writing biographical fiction, Naz founded the Queen's award-winning NINE RED Presents...(CIC). That responds to the Luton community's needs to bring about social change and positively impact people's lives.

Naz published her first book in 2016 "Butterfly Drinks Crocodile Tears" a collection of Art, Prose and Poetry with a forward written by Dr Shaun Wallace; Barrister and a "chaser" on ITV's "The Chase".

As a child, Naz said that "(she) Never chose to write, words chose me to be their writer," describing herself as a word mechanic

Naz is an interdisciplinary artist, whose practice comprises of the exploration of the contrasting yet interconnected elements of light, projection, sound and movement to transform and connect people and spaces, using poetry that delivers messages across all levels of awareness.

Find out more about Naz Knight <http://wordschoseme.artundefined.co.uk/> and Nine Red www.nineredpresents.org.uk